20. In your General Order now published, you have properly directed, that in "Garrison and Artillery Division Schools, the number of each article is to be regulated by the strength of the Troops for which the School is specially allowed." This Rule is quite proper, and in conformity with it, we shall approve of the present authorized complement of Books for a Regimental School being exceeded whenever you are satisfied that it is insufficient for the number of Scholars attending the School. McLeod's Spelling Book may be included in future Indents.

No. 153 of 1855.—The under-mentioned Officer is permitted to proceed to Europe, on leave of absence on Sick certificate:—

Major Ralph Thorpe, } Foreighteen months, of the Invalid Establishment, } under the new Regulations.

Fort William, 30th January 1855.

No. 154 of 1855.—In order to prevent in future the inconvenience and detriment to which young Officers are subjected from the delay which at times takes place under the present system of posting them to Regiments, the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased, with the sanction of the Honorable the Court of Directors, to lay down the following rules to be observed hereafter at the three Presidencies in posting Cavalry and Infantry Cadets to Regiments:—

1. It is intended that Regimental rise shall, in every case, be brought into full operation at the earliest practicable period after the arrival of the Cadet at the Presidency for which he is appointed.

2. The Lists of Rank of Cadets prepared at the India House will be published in Government General Orders in the Military Department immediately after their receipt.

3. From these will be compiled in the Office of the Adjutant General of the Army at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, a List showing the date of rank of each Cadet, and a General Order will be issued by Government assigning the rank of Cornet or Ensign, as the case may be, to the several Cadets.

4. Immediately after the publication of the General Order assigning rank, the senior Cornet or Ensign on the List is to be posted by order of Government to the first vacancy, but when there may be a number of vacancies in Regiments, the senior on the list is to be posted to the most advantageous vacancy in the branch to which he belongs known at the Adjutant General's Office at the Presidency, and so on in succession; the Army Lists being closed at the Presidency on the date of the General Order, and only those casualties in Regiments known on the evening of that date being taken into account in posting the seniors on the list for whom there may be vacancies in Regiments.

5. Should any Cadet, posted to a Regiment according to his standing in the list received from the India House, fail to take up his appointment, the vacancy is to be considered as an ordinary casualty.

6. Should the rank originally assigned to a Cadet be afterwards altered under any circumstances, it is in no way to affect his position in the Regiment to which he may have been posted, unless such alteration of rank puts him below any Officer who may have been posted under him in the same Regiment. In this case the Officer who may have lost rank in the List of Cadets must be placed in his Regiment below those Officers in it who rank above him as a Cadet.

7. Any alteration of rank as a Cadet will, of course, affect the standing of an Officer in the Gradation List of the Army, in which he must at once be placed in his proper position.

8. Any Cornet or Ensign who may wish to be removed from the Regiment to which he has been posted to another, must intimate his wish to that effect to the Officer in charge of the Adjutant General's Office at the Presidency. Should there be a vacancy in the Corps he selects on his application reaching the Military Department from the Adjutant General's Office, he will be removed to it at once, or if he expresses a wish to that effect, he may be removed on the occurrence of the next vacancy in the Corps which he selects.

9. No Cornet or Ensign is permitted to exchange more than once from one Corps to another, and those who have been more than one month with a Corps will be permitted to exchange only when the reasons for desiring it are valid and proper, and when it is shown that the Officer has not involved himself in difficulties whether of a pecuniary or any other nature.

10. Gentlemen appointed abroad and who are required to pass their examination in India, will be entitled to retain their position on the Lists of rank of Cadets received from the India House, provided they appear at the first meeting of the Board of Examiners after the Notification of their appointments in General Orders and pass the prescribed examination.

11. The names of those who do not appear or who fail to pass their examination at such first meeting of the Board are to be withdrawn from these lists and to be placed, in any subsequent list, according to the dates of their passing.

12. The position of a Cadet in such subsequent list will be made to correspond with that of those who left England at such time as would have allowed of the despatch by the same opportunity of the letters of appointment. Thus a Cadet so circumstanced will rank below those who left England in the Steamer which conveyed the Overland Mail last received on the date of his passing his examination, or should no Cadet have come out by that opportunity, then as junior to all who sailed from England on any date prior to the departure from Southampton of such steamer.

13. Gentlemen appointed abroad who may not be found qualified on the first examination, will be allowed a second trial within the next ensuing six months; and, should they fail to pass the examination at the second trial, they will be precluded from taking up their appointment.

Earl of Aberdeen.	Sir Charles Wood, Bt.
Sir Wm. Molesworth, Bt.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "an Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's Dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is amongst other things enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's Dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of Territory.

An Act for the further improvement of the Law of Evidence.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to improve the Law of Evidence, It is enacted as follows :

I. Act No. X. of 1835 is hereby repealed.

II. Within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, all Courts of Justice and all persons having by law or consent of parties authority to take evidence shall take judicial notice of all Regulations and Ordinances made before or on the 22nd day of April 1834 by the Governor General in Council of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George, or by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Bombay, and having the force of Law in any part of the said territories, and of all Laws and Regulations heretofore made by the Governor General of India in Council, and of this Act, and of all Acts and Regulations heretofore made, or hereafter to be made by the Governor General of India in Council, constituted for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, whether the same be of a public or of a private nature.

III. All Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of all public Acts of Parliament and of all local and personal Acts declared by Parliament to be public and to be judicially noticed, and shall admit as prima facie evidence of any private Act of Parliament, any copy thereof purporting to be printed by the King's Printer.

IV. Every Court shall take judicial notice of its own Members and Officers respectively, and of their deputies and subordinate Officers or Assistants, and also of all Officers acting in execution of its process, and of all Advocates, Attorneys, Proctors, Vakeels, Pleaders, and other persons authorized by Law to act before it.

V. All Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of the names, titles, and authorities of the persons filling for the time being any one of the following offices in any part of the said territories:—Governor General, Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Deputy Governor, Secretary or Under-Secretary to Government, Commander-in-Chief, Bishop, Member of Council, Legislative Councillor, Judge of any of Her Majesty's Courts or of any Sudder Court, or of any Court of Judicature hereafter to be constituted in the said territories, to or in which the powers of any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts may be transferred or vested.

VI. All such Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of all divisions of time, of the geographical divisions of the world, of the territories under the dominion of the British Crown, of the commencement, continuation and termination of hostilities between the British Crown and any other State, and also of the existence, title and national flag of every Sovereign or State recognized by the British Crown. In all the above cases, such Court or person may resort for its aid to appropriate Books or documents of reference.

VII. Any Government Gazette of any Country, Colony, or dependency under the dominion of the British Crown, may be proved by the bare production thereof before any of the Courts or persons aforesaid.

VIII. All Proclamations, Acts of State, whether Legislative or Executive, nominations, appointments, and other official communications of the Government appearing in any such Gazette, may be proved by the production of such Gazette, and shall be prima facie proof of any fact of a public nature which they were intended to notify.

IX. Any recital contained in any Act of the Governor General of India in Council, constituted for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations hereafter to be passed of any fact of a public nature, shall be deemed, before all such Courts and persons, to be prima facie evidence of the truth of the fact recited.

X. The Gazette or Newspaper containing any advertisement purporting to be published by virtue of any public Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance, or of any Rule or Order of a Court of Justice or of any Board or Officer of Revenue, may be received by any such Courts or persons as aforesaid as prima facie evidence that such advertisement was published duly under the authority from which it purports to proceed.

XI. All Courts and persons aforesaid may, on matters of public History, Literature, Science, or Art, refer, for the purposes of evidence, to such published Books, Maps, or Charts as such Courts or persons shall consider to be of authority on the subject to which they relate.

XII. Books printed or published under the authority of the Government of a Foreign Country and purporting to contain the Statutes, Code, or other written Law of such Country, and also printed and published Books of reports of decisions of the Courts of such Country, and Books proved to be commonly admitted in such Courts as evidence of the Law of such Country, shall be admissible before any such Courts or persons as aforesaid as evidence of the Law of such Foreign Country.

XIII. All Maps made under the authority of Government or of any public municipal body, and not made for the purpose of any litigated question, shall be deemed to be correct, and shall be admitted in evidence without further proof.

XIV. The following persons only shall be incompetent to testify:

1. Children under seven years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly.

2. Persons of unsound mind, who, at the time of their examination, appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly; and no person who is known to be of unsound mind shall be liable to be summoned as a witness, without the consent previously obtained of the Court or person before whom his attendance is required.

XV. Any person who, by reason of immature age or want of religious belief, or who by reason of defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of such Court or person, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on a simple affirmation, declaring that he will speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

XVI. The provisions in the last preceding Section as to witnesses shall apply to testimony given by affidavit or otherwise in writing, as well as to testimony orally delivered.

XVII. Any such witness wilfully giving false evidence shall be subject to be proceeded against in like manner, and to suffer, if convicted, the same punishment as if he had been sworn and had committed wilful and corrupt perjury. The indictment or charge shall be varied so as to meet the case.

XVIII. No person shall, by reason of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, or by reason of relationship to any of the parties thereto, be incompetent to give evidence in such suit.

XIX. Any party to a civil suit or other proceeding of a civil nature shall be competent and may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit or proceeding, and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner as if he were not a party to the suit or proceeding.

Provided that no Court or person as aforesaid, other than Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature, shall compel the attendance of any party to such suit or proceeding for the purpose of giving evidence therein, except under and subject to the rules prescribed in that behalf in Act XIX. of 1853.

XX. A husband or wife shall in every civil proceeding be competent to give evidence for or against each other. Provided that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

XXI. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

XXII. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any confidential writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party however offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXIII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to bring it, or cause it to be brought into Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production or to the reading or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof, the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court; and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence, which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court, except in the case of any document relating to affairs of State, to inspect the document, and, if necessary, to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence.

XXIV. A Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein, at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel, of any matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the Barrister, Attorney, or Vakeel shall be bound upon examination to disclose any such matter.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document, shall be deemed to have complied with the summons, if he cause such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XXVII. The Rules of Evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts as to matters of Ecclesiastical or Admiralty Civil Jurisdiction, shall be the same as they are on the Plea side of the said Courts.

XXVIII. Except in cases of treason, the direct evidence of one witness, who is entitled to full credit, shall be sufficient for proof of any fact in any such Court or before any such person. But this provision shall not affect any rule or

XXX. The party at whose instance a witness is examined may, with the permission of such Court or person, cross-examine such witness, to test his veracity, in the same manner as if he had not been called at his instance, and may be allowed to show that the witness has varied from a previous statement made by him.

XXXI. XL. Any entry in any books proved to have been regularly kept in the course of business or in any public office, so far as such entry merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number or otherwise any Bank Notes or other Securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer-in or receiver of them, shall, in any case where such identification is necessary to be proved, be admissible in evidence for that limited purpose if it shall appear to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, though the person who made it, or he on whose information it was made, is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

LI. Any book proved to have been kept for marking the dispatch and receipt of letters, containing an entry of the dispatch of a letter, and an acknowledgment of the receipt of such letter, shall, on proof that such entry was made in the usual course of business, be prima facie evidence of the receipt of such letter.

LV. The 33rd Section of the Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the said Supreme Courts, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Courts.

LVI. Whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereafter in force, any Certificate, certified copy, or other document, shall be receivable in evidence of any particular in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation, or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence, where it is rendered admissible, without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

LVII. The improper admission or rejection of evidence shall not be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that, independently of the evidence objected to and admitted, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that, if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

LVIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to render inadmissible in any Court any evidence which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been admissible in such Court.

Legislative Council.

The 2nd February 1855.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd February 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 7th of May next:—

A Bill for the establishment and maintenance of Boundary-marks in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is desirable, with a view to the better definition and security of landed property, the prevention of encroachments and disputes, and the identification of lands assessed to or exempted from the public revenue in the Presidency of Fort St. George, that provision should be made for the establishment and maintenance of permanent marks to distinguish the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates and villages: It is enacted as follows:—

I. It shall be lawful for Collectors of Land Revenue, or persons exercising the powers of Collector, or such other Officers as the Government may appoint for the purpose, to fix the boundaries of fields, holdings, estates or villages, and to require that marks be formed and maintained by the owners or occupants on the boundaries, of such materials, and in such number and manner as may appear to such Officers sufficient, for distinguishing the limits of such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, whenever they may be of opinion that such demarcation is necessary for the prevention or adjustment of disputes.

II. Notices shall be served on the persons owning or occupying the contiguous fields, holdings, estates, or villages, requiring them to form or repair such boundary-marks within ten days from the date of the notice, and in the event of these persons not being found in their village, the said requisition shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the village, which shall be held to be a sufficient service, notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that the owners or occupants were not correctly named or designated in the said notice.

III. In default of the owners or occupants of the fields, holdings, estates, or villages complying with such requisition, the said Officers may give directions for the erection and repair of such boundary-marks, and may order the costs to be equitably apportioned on the fields, holdings, estates, or villages which they serve to distinguish, and the same shall be charged to the persons possessing a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields, holdings, estates, or villages, and shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

IV. In the case of unoccupied fields, of which the ownership is not at the time claimed, the costs shall be charged upon the revenue of the village in which the fields are situated, and no person subsequently claiming a right of ownership or occupancy in such fields shall have possession of the same, until he makes good the costs so charged on account thereof.

V. Any person convicted before a Magistrate of wilfully and without lawful excuse erasing, removing, or injuring such boundary-marks, or any survey-marks fixed by an Officer of Government, with a view to the ascertainment of boundaries, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees for each mark so erased, removed, or injured, one-half of which fine may be awarded to the informer, and the other half shall be chargeable with the cost of restoring the mark. Whenever it may not be possible to detect the person who erased, removed, or injured such boundary or survey-marks as aforesaid, or the party who may have been convicted of such offence is unable to pay the fine awarded against him, the Collector or other Officer authorized in that behalf may order the costs of erecting or repairing the marks to be charged to the owners or occupants of the adjacent lands, or apportioned among the ryots of the village in proportion to their puttahs, as he may consider just and equitable, and such costs shall be levied in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

VI. Any occupant or owner of land refusing or failing to attend when summoned by the Collector or other Officer authorized by Government, at the measurement and demarcation of his field, holding, estate, or of the village boundary in general, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees by order of the Collector or other such Officer, which fine shall be leviable by the same process as an arrear of land revenue.

VII. The proceedings of Officers imposing charges under Sections III. and V., or fines under Section VI. of this Act, shall be recorded in writing, and shall be subject to appeal to the Revenue authorities to whom they are subordinate.
